TalkPoints B

John Wesley gave 3 general rules for living as a Christian. First he said to do no harm and to avoid evil of every kind.

1. Things I have done or said that caused harm to others include:
2. If I harm someone, I believe it's my responsibility to try to make it right by:
3. Some of the evil I know I need to avoid includes:

Second, Wesley said to do good of every sort, and, as far as it is possible, to all.

1. Examples of the ways I have actively "done good" for others include:
2. I sometimes find it a challenge to be good to this group of people – explain:
3. One thing that helps motivate me to want to "do good" to others is:

Third, Wesley said that we should "attend upon all the ordinances of God."

1. Ordinances are practices of faith that help us stay close to God, like worship, prayer, Communion, meditation, etc. The practices of faith I enjoy most include:
2. One practice I would like to understand better is _____. Why?
